COA 01	Time travel to the middle ages	Explore Eggenburg and feel like you're in the Middle Ages! On an exciting guided tour through the medieval town, you will discover old vaults, magnificent houses and climb the mighty town wall. Afterwards, you'll walk a leisurely 14.5 km to the scout centre in Horn. There you will cook together with two other groups and round off the evening around the campfire. After the extensive hike, you can sleep soundly indoors in the scout centre. The next morning there will be plenty of time to explore the town or go for a swim in the town lake.	5	4	2	3
COA 02	On the trail off the Germanic tribes	Discover bygone worlds on a 25 km hike in the Kamptal! It takes you via the Kamptalwarte on the Heiligenstein to a ruin before you explore the open-air museum in Elsarn. Here you can immerse yourself in the everyday life of the farming population of the 2nd and 3rd centuries AD north of the Danube. You then hike back to the control centre and the Kampbad, where you can refresh yourself before ending the day with dinner with another group and a campfire at the scout centre in Langenlois. You spend the night indoors at the scout centre. The next day, you can explore the charming wine town of Langenlois or cool off again at the Kampbad.	5	5	3	4
COA 03	Joke with a view	Experience a high class adventure! Hike along a challenging route (22km 710m up to 710m down) with breathtaking views of the Danube and the picturesque Wachau. Enjoy the panorama from the Dürnstein castle ruins, climb the Starhembergwarte and circle the majestic Hengelwand mountain. As a highlight, visit the caricature museum, after a night in the Krems scout centre, for a dash of humour and culture. This tour offers unforgettable impressions and physical challenges that are well worth the effort. Immerse yourself in the beauty of nature and experience the fascination of hiking in one of Austria's most beautiful regions!	2	4	3	5
COA 04	Kamp – river – hiking – pleasure	An extensive hike takes you for approx. 20 km with few metres in altitude along the picturesque Kamptal valley from the wine-growing region of Langenlois to the climatic health resort of Gars am Kamp. You can cool off in one of the river baths (Stiefen, Plank, Schönberg,...) along the way. Once you arrive at the scout centre in Gars, you will cook with another group and round off the evening around the campfire. After the hike, you'll get a good night's sleep indoors at the scout centre. The next morning, you can test your paddling skills on a short kayak tour on the Kamp.	1	5	3	5

COA 05	Hundert- wassers colourful paths	Follow in the footsteps of the artist Friedensreich Hundertwasser. Your path leads you along the unspoilt River Kamp for approx. 12 km from Roiten to Zwettl. Very flat and in the shady forest - the ideal hike for hot summer days. At the Zwettl scout centre, you will cook together with another group and round off the evening around the campfire. You will sleep outdoors under the open sky. The next morning you will walk to Wurmhof Thaller, where you will immerse yourself in the world of earthworms, learn interesting facts about compost and make your own seed bombs.	3	5	3	2
COA 06	There is (no) herb growing	Immerse yourself in the SONNENTOR experience in the Sprögnitz herb village. Embark on a journey of discovery for the senses through fragrant herb halls and find out how organic teas and spices are made. A tasting of the teas, spices, biscuits and snacks is of course a must. Afterwards, you will hike approx. 12 km to the Zwettl scout centre, where you will cook together with another group and round off the evening around the campfire. You can sleep comfortably indoors in the scout centre. The next morning there is plenty of time to explore the town, test your skills in the adventure motor skills park or splash around in the sunbathing area.	3	5	2	3
COA 07	An eventful garden time-out	You start your time-out at the Kronsegg scout base (near Langenlois). From there, a leisurely walk of around 4 km takes you across the reservoir through a forest through the cellar lane to the Kittenberger adventure gardens. An abundance of plants, cute animals such as kangaroos and alpacas and Europe's first FLOWER-GOKART track await you here. Climb the climbing course, whizz down the slides and experience magical moments among fragrant flowers and herbs. Then head back and cool off in the reservoir before cooking and eating dinner with your group at the scout base. In the evening, you can relax and unwind by the campfire before spending the night outdoors. The next day, you can explore the nearby ruins or take another dip in the cool water	1	5	5	1
COA 08	Baroqu'n' roll in the monastery	You start your approx. 8 km hike at the scout centre in Horn, where you will also spend the night. Your route takes you past the picturesque nature next to the river "Kamp" to the baroque Benedictine monastery of Altenburg. As part of a guided tour, you will learn more about the Baroque period, the Middle Ages, monastic life and world religions and discover the monastery beneath the monastery and the beautiful monastery gardens. The route back to Horn is approx. 7.5 kilometres along an easy hiking trail. There you will cook together with two other groups and round off the evening around the campfire. You will sleep outdoors in the covered area of the scout centre. The next morning	5	4	2	2 there will be plenty of time to explore the town or go for a swim in the town lake.

COA 09	Action!	Start with a relaxing 6 km walk around the picturesque Jaidhof Castle (near Gföhl), where you can enjoy the beauty of the park and escape the stress of camp. In the afternoon, the oldest cinema in Lower Austria dating back to 1923 awaits you, where you can take a look behind the scenes and learn all about the fascinating technology of the past and present. Afterwards, enjoy the special screening and savour the popcorn. You will then cook dinner and spend the night indoors at the Gföhl scout centre. On Sunday, you'll have plenty of free time to relax in the outdoor pool or enjoy a homemade ice cream. Immerse yourself in the culture of Gföhl and experience an unforgettable excursion full of history and relaxation! Action!	5	5	2	1
COA 10	Woid Cycling	Strength, power, vigour: if walking is too slow for you, then we have good news. Embark on a cycle tour through the Waldviertel, along the water and past castles and ruins. To top off your tour on the first day (53km 810m uphill 810m downhill), an idyllic overnight stay right by the lake (outdoor) awaits you, promising peace and relaxation. The next day, your tour takes you home to the WoidLa campsite around the Dobra reservoir (25km 370m uphill 370m downhill) where you can enjoy the nature near the campsite. So what are you waiting for - immerse yourself in this unique combination of sport, culture and nature!	2	3	3	4
COA 11	Fliag wia a Fliaga (Fly like a plane)	You start your hike at 8.30 a.m. directly from the camp site in the direction of the Dobra ruins. During the hike, you will see the picturesque Waldviertel and follow the course of the Kamp. After around 2 hours you reach the keep, where the adventure begins: Austria's longest steel cable slide awaits you. Secured in a combi harness, you jump from a height of 40 metres and glide 370 metres across the Kampsee lake. You cross the water and come to a halt in the centre of the lake. You then abseil down into the boat and return to the shore. An unforgettable experience surrounded by nature! The way to the outdoor overnight accommodation on Mühlhörndl Island is then not far away at around 1 hour's walk. Enjoy a cosy evening around the campfire on Mühlhörndl Island before hiking back to camp the next day. The total hiking distance is approx. 14 km.	5	1	5	4

COA 12	News from candle village	Your adventure begins in picturesque Kerzenhausen, a candle factory tucked away in an idyllic forest. Here you will be immersed in the world of candle making, learn how to dye candles and create your own masterpiece to take home as a souvenir. In the afternoon, hike through the countryside to Gföhl, 9km away, where you will set up camp in an old quarry and cook and sleep in the open air. The next day is your choice: relax in the outdoor pool, enjoy a homemade ice cream or explore the charming town of Gföhl. Experience an activity full of adventure, creativity and closeness to nature!	3	5	2	2
COA 13	Dark side of WoidLa	The hike begins at the Hartenstein campsite, where you will also spend the night in the open air. From there, you embark on a fascinating circular tour. The trail takes you to the Vettersteig trail with its impressive rock formations. Continue to the Gudenus Cave, a 30-metre-long passage cave located around 8 metres above the river bed. Artefacts from the lower cultural layer (approx. 70,000 years ago) have been discovered here. Finally you reach the Eichmayerhöhle, a fissure cave. Excavations in the 19th century uncovered Magdalenian artefacts and the remains of 27 mammal and 8 bird species. This challenging route is not for the faint-hearted; the 14.7 km offer a great variety of altitude metres. After cooking, you end the evening with a cosy campfire in the open air. After dismantling, you return to the WoidLa campsite the next morning	3	4	5	5
COA 14	Caves and rivers	Start your approx. 20 km hike in Gföhl and follow the path downhill into the picturesque Krems Valley. You hike along the Krems past the Zwickl - the confluence of the large and small Krems, the impressive Gudenus Cave, which was once inhabited by Neanderthals over 70,000 years ago, and on to historical sights such as Hartenstein Castle, a mill and a sawmill. Your route ends at an idyllic camp site in Hartenstein, far away from civilisation, where you will cook and spend the night outdoors with another group. The next day, you can enjoy nature to the full and take a dip in the refreshing Krems river. Experience a hike full of adventure and unforgettable impressions in the midst of nature!	3	4	5	5

COA 15	Crystal- Clear	Your adventure starts in the Amethyst World in Maissau. This unique adventure park is home to one of the world's largest accessible amethyst veins. Here you can explore the impressive amethyst gallery, learn more about the formation of gemstones and dig for amethysts yourself. You'll have plenty of time to dig up your own personal gemstone or satisfy your geological curiosity before walking approx. 15 km to the Gars am Kamp scout centre, where you'll spend the night outdoors. The next day you'll have plenty of time to explore Gars, whether you want to cool off in the swimming pool or just chill out in the beautiful scout centre.	2	4	3	3
COA 16	Assault on the castle	Your assault on the castle takes you about 6 kilometres from Gars am Kamp to the Renaissance Rosenberg Castle. Here you will experience a guided tour of the castle museum with armoury, knights' hall, chapel and much more. Alternatively, you can take part in the historic birds of prey show and learn more about falconry. You can also explore the castle's beautiful gardens. Your route takes you approx. 8 km through the picturesque Taffa Valley to your overnight accommodation at the Horn scout centre. There you will cook together with two other groups and round off the evening around the campfire. You will sleep outdoors in the covered area of the scout centre. The next morning there will be plenty of time to explore the town or go for a swim in the town lake.	5	4	3	2
